118. ANNUAL STATE OF THE TENDRING DISTRICT STATEMENT BY THE LEADER OF THE COUNCIL

The Council received the Annual State of the Tendring District Statement from the Leader of the Council (Councillor Stock) as follows:-

“Mr Chairman, Councillors, members of the public, I am proud to present to you this year’s State of Tendring statement. This statement is intended to be a positive view of where we are, to reflect on how far we have come, but I will not attempt to gloss over the challenges that lie ahead.

One year into a new Council, with lots of new Councillors, we can all be proud of the great progress we have made and what we have achieved. This success continues despite the real financial challenges and local circumstances which impact upon our communities.

We continue to demonstrate strong community leadership. We are an integral part of local and regional partnership working; leading the way to find innovative solutions to local challenges. Here are a few examples: -

- We have completed on time and under budget a £36 million coastal defence and regeneration project along a 5km stretch, the largest in the UK, to protect over 3,000 homes and businesses from the sea for the next 100 years. This scheme was only made possible through partnership working and joint innovative funding arrangements – and of course, by this Council showing vision, determination and passion.

- We have made real progress in Jaywick. In the past year there has been commitment from the Council, working with a variety of agencies, to take action. Working with Essex County Council, roads have been improved. We have purchased 28 hectares of land for development and we are currently working to deliver new homes, businesses and infrastructure. This is all being done in close collaboration with the community. Even the Prime Minister himself has written to me to congratulate us for the work that is being done to improve Jaywick.

- We are leading the Tendring Community Safety Hub. This model of partnership working has been widely praised in an LGA Peer Review in November 2015. It has resulted in us directing Police and other partners’ priorities to what we see as important. As a result, we have seen crime down by 23% in Harwich and just a 1% increase in Clacton when it was up by 50% just two years ago.

Overall crime is up by 9% across Essex, however in Tendring it is just 1%. I have also been working with our Chief Executive and the Assistant Chief Constable to promote the roll out of this innovative approach across the rest of Essex.

- We are at the forefront of exploring the opportunities for devolving government powers and funding down to a much more local level. The Chief Executive and I have been leading on developing a governance model for a Greater Essex deal; this is no easy task – the 15 different authorities in Greater Essex have a history of disagreeing and given that the combined population of the area is 1.8 million it is no surprise that the different areas have different wants and needs. But despite our differences, we do all have the view that the principle of devolution is a good one, and this shared view has resulted in significant joint working by the 15 Councils. One of the very best examples of joined up working across borders is the work that has been going on between this Authority and our neighbours in Colchester and Braintree. Our joint working on planning policies has attracted national attention and we are again demonstrating our ability to be innovative and to show strong and effective leadership.

- I am also excited to be leading on the ground-breaking work on Garden Communities in North Essex which is a quite revolutionary concept that has been nationally recognised for its pioneering and ambitious vision. So much so that Government has funded £640,000 towards the exploratory work. This is looking at how we deliver outstanding new housing whilst ensuring that the infrastructure needs are delivered before the housing is built out.

And of course we continue to work for those that need help the most. For example, we supported the development of the Tendring Mental Health Hub Pilot with the Citizen's Advice Bureau to ensure that some of the most vulnerable members of our community receive appropriate and timely interventions.

Community Leadership is all about enabling communities and breaking down barriers so that we improve public services for all.

Mr Chairman, we are a Council that works hard to support all these initiatives but we have not forgotten to deliver outstanding affordable services to the public.

- The 24th Clacton Air Show, which gave us another spectacular two days, had an estimated 220,000 people enjoying great weather and an amazing display which included the Vulcan in its last year of flight. The economic impact study shows that the Air Show is worth £5.55m to the Tendring District.

- The Frinton and Walton pool extension which is nearing completion and will bring 136 square metres of upgraded space.

- The newly refurbished Walton-on-the-Naze Lifestyles will open to the public later this month.

- We completed major changes at the Crematorium. This is a £1.5 million scheme which has delivered new cremators and other much needed changes to the crematorium facilities.

- Last year Tendring District Council in partnership with Clacton Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) staged the Tendring Jobs and Careers Fair. This unique partnership with DWP started 3 years ago and has helped to deliver additional support and develop projects to enhance all services to businesses and job seekers, especially in some of our most deprived areas, including Jaywick.

This year's Careers Fair is taking place on Tuesday 4th October, from 10.00am to 4.00pm here in the Princes Theatre. Last year's event attracted nearly 2,000 visitors. There were a total of over 700 jobs available and we know that over 100 candidates secured employment as a direct result of that event. Over 75% of the 2016 exhibitors were local employers. This year free transportation is being offered to job seekers from Dovercourt, Harwich and Jaywick to ensure they don't miss out on jobs or training.

We already have over 30 exhibitors committed this year which include Stansted Airport, Marks & Spencer, First Bus Group, Surya Foods & Sainsbury's. Barclays Bank will again be providing their 'Digital Eagle' services and we are currently in final discussions with a large Training and Apprenticeship provider who will be offering some unusual interactive opportunities.

- All this has been achieved despite saving £12.5 million from our revenue budget since 2011. But of course Mr Chairman, we certainly cannot afford to rest on our laurels, and there is much to consider as we look forward:

- A further major Capital scheme on Clacton to Holland Seafront, with £5m worth of Cliff Stabilisation Works;

- Great opportunities to make the most of the new beaches for the benefit of the people of Tendring;

- A Review of the Council by the Local Government Boundary Commission – with a view to reducing the number of Councillors when we next have District Elections – and also an opportunity to examine the governance arrangements for this Authority.

- Big decisions to be made as we create and adopt a new Local Plan, so that this Council has control over new housing developments rather than the nightmare scenario of a Westminster-imposed plan with developers being given a free-for-all;

- There are choices to be made to achieve major budget savings. Difficult choices. We still need to take £3.5 million off the annual budget by 2019. Let's none of us pretend that we will be able to do that without making some tough decisions;

- We are rationalising our office requirements and working far more collaboratively and in partnership, becoming a more flexible and responsive organisation both to ensure better service delivery for our residents and also wherever possible, to save money.

We will continue to take every opportunity to become a leaner Council and be increasingly self-sufficient. This means delivering more for less and working with partners to provide high quality services.

We are acknowledged as a Council that demonstrates excellence and we can proudly celebrate obtaining the highly prestigious Investors in People Gold Standard. This award recognises that our Council has gone from being an insular local authority to one which is now recognised for outstanding leadership and one of only 5% to receive the Gold Standard. Put simply, this is independent verification that Tendring District Council is one of the very best local authorities in the country. We also held our first 'Tendring Star' staff awards at the end of 2015, recognising some exceptional contributions from staff right across the Council.

But Mr Chairman there is so much more to do. To this end we have identified some key priorities to deliver improvement for our district.

- Community leadership is key to our residents. As elected representatives our constituents expect us to represent them in all their issues, be it services delivered by Tendring District Council or a host of other issues where we can represent their issues to others. These include health, education and community safety issues. For example, we have, as a Council, called to account representatives of education and health. I believe this work has had a real impact and a positive effect on improvement such as particularly in education.

We will ensure that this ethos will continue to underpin our work. Chairman, we will continue to focus on our key priorities of:

- Our Council / Our Community Delivering high quality affordable services, transforming and managing our assets, within a balanced budget. Working effectively with partners to support our communities.
- Health and Housing Providing a quality living environment and local regeneration to promote healthier lifestyles and wellbeing.
- Employment and Enjoyment Supporting business growth, skills and qualifications to provide better job prospects. Delivering quality leisure attractions and events.

And Mr Chairman I want to take a moment to thank all Members of this Authority for the hard work you do on behalf of the residents of Tendring. I particularly want to thank my Cabinet members for all their dedication and hard work and for coming together from different political groups to work together to deliver many of the things I have highlighted and to scrutiny members who have really helped to shape the Council's work and budget. There has also been some excellent cross-party working whether it is in scrutiny, working groups or committees such as the Local Plan Committee. We can all do the politics but working together we can achieve so much more for the District. At the end of the day, despite whatever political differences we may all have, I am sure that we are all here to make a difference for our communities and to improve the lives of our residents.

And so to conclude

Mr Chairman, we face unprecedented challenges in the coming year, not least those imposed upon us by Government in the form of savage funding cuts, but we can be reassured:

- By the firm-footing we have established as a Council dedicated to meeting the needs of our District;
- By the excellent and committed Officers who continue to go above and beyond to support us;
- By an established, consistent and fair approach to making big decisions irrespective of political affiliations; and
- By the support of strong partnerships developed across the County.

So Mr Chairman I urge all Members to carry on contributing positively to addressing the problems and issues the Council faces in this coming year. It will be difficult and some decisions will be hard but we cannot shy away from them. This Council has always been at its best when facing its greatest challenges; if we continue to think big in our ambitions, be resolute in the face of adversity and never stop believing in what we are doing then I have no doubts that this Council will continue to be one of the very best in the Country."

Councillors I J Henderson, Everett, Scott, Bray and Newton all addressed the Council during the debate on the Statement.

120. QUESTIONS PURSUANT TO COUNCIL PROCEDURE RULE 9

There were none on this occasion.

121. QUESTIONS PURSUANT TO COUNCIL PROCEDURE RULE 10.2

The Council had received a question from a Member in relation to the maintenance of roads into, and out of, Clacton-on-Sea.

Notice of the question had been given in accordance with Council Procedure Rule 10.2.

Question

From Councillor A Pemberton to Councillor N Turner, Coastal Protection Portfolio Holder:

“What was the point in spending £37 million on sea defences when the first thing people see when entering Clacton and Tendring is craters in the road? Wouldn't it have been more prudent to encourage Essex County Council to repair the road? This would enable visitors to enjoy the scenic views and the new beaches with the sound of waves lapping the beach with their children laughing having a fantastic day? Instead we can see children crying and bored seeing ramps and overalls in a repair centre with the deafening sound of air powered tools as the punctures, springs and suspensions of their vehicles are being repaired due to the damage received attempting to get to our advertised new beaches. The roads in and out of Clacton advertise our town more than the £37 million pound beach because they are the first thing you see, if you see pot holes the size of bin lids continuously down the road you aren't going to risk £50 on tyres or £100 on shock absorbers to go and spend more money on car repairs to facilitate a day on the beach. Instead potential visitors are going to get straight on the A12 join the A14 at Copdock and either end up in Felixstowe or Great Yarmouth. After all the money spent on diesel will be less than the cost of damage to their car caused by a day out to Clacton.

Will the Portfolio Holder use his influence on Essex County Council to get our roads mended before it puts people off coming here for the summer?”

Councillor Turner responded as follows: “Yes!”

Supplementary Question from Councillor Pemberton

“Could he also agree that while the roads are in a terrible state with the lack of maintenance and repairs to street furniture it could leave a negative impact on our tourism economy? Would you also agree a possible solution would be to ask the Highways Panel that meets on Thursday to utilise its Rangers to put some of the more visual problems while we wait for Essex County Council?”

The Local Highways Panel has a budget of £130,000 for the Highways Panel to use. The Highways Rangers cover work across the Council that is too small to give to a contractor to raise the appearance of the area.”

Councillor Turner responded as follows:

“Thank you for your supplementary question Councillor Pemberton. Yes, is the answer again and I would also like to draw your reasoning to the point of spending less than £33million of public money on new sea defences for 5kms of coastline from Holland Haven to Clacton Pier and bringing it in 2 years ahead of schedule and 8% under budget was to protect the area behind that 5kms for the next 100 years and more. The beaches are a by-product of those defences. The rock revetments/arms are there to keep the beaches in place. The beaches are a soft defence. The sea wall is a hard defence, that is no longer tenable, costs too much to maintain and new long-term hard defences are not deliverable.

The solution is a soft defence. The sea's energy is enormous and to dissipate that a good beach is perfect. The beach also has a second life as a playground for us.

Always be aware that those beaches are there for the primary reason of protecting Holland-on-Sea and Clacton-on-Sea up to the Pier, thus saving 3,000+ homes, many businesses, all our infrastructure, roads, pavements, sewers (which is why we have been part funded by Essex County Council and Anglian Water), the other utilities (Telecoms Water, Gas and Electricity). We are attempting to get them to cough up monies for our ongoing cliff stabilisation projects.

So I thank you for your question Councillor Pemberton, and a heads up to you, never ask a question you don't know the answer to."
