TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

APPLICATION NO: 18/01576/FUL

DATE REGISTERED: 20th September 2018

Proposed Development and Location of the Land:

Construction of Horse Gallop.
Gatehouse Farm Brightlingsea Road Thorrington Colchester

THE TENDRING DISTRICT COUNCIL AS LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY HEREBY GRANT PLANNING PERMISSION in accordance with the application form, supporting documents and plans submitted, subject to the following conditions;

- 1 The development hereby permitted shall be begun before the expiration of three years from the date of this permission.

Reason - To comply with the requirements of Section 91 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, as amended by the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.

- 2 The development hereby permitted shall be carried out in accordance with the following approved plans, drawing numbers 891/loc and 891/01.

Reason - For the avoidance of doubt and in the interests of proper planning.

- 3 No floodlighting or other external lighting shall be installed to the hereby approved gallop until details of the illumination scheme have been submitted to and approved in writing by the Local Planning Authority. Development shall only be carried out in accordance with the approved details.

Reason - In the interests of residential amenity and to reduce the impact of night time illumination on the character of the area.

- 4 The horse gallop hereby approved shall be used solely in connection with the private keeping of horses and no business or commercial use including livery or riding school activities shall be carried on from the site whatsoever.

Reason - In the interests of local amenity and highway safety.

DATED: 28th November 2018

Positive and Proactive Statement

The Local Planning Authority has acted positively and proactively in determining this application by assessing the proposal against all material considerations, including planning policies and any representations that may have been received and subsequently determining to grant planning permission in accordance with the presumption in favour of sustainable development, as set out within the National Planning Policy Framework.

Standard Informative 1: The Provisions of the Essex Act 1987, Section 13 (Access for the Fire Brigade) may apply to this Development and will be determined at Building Regulation Stage.

Standard Informative 2: You are reminded that the carrying out of building works requires approval under the Building Regulations in many cases as well as a grant of planning permission. If you are in doubt as to whether or not the work, the subject of this planning permission, requires such approval, then you are invited to contact the Building Control section at Tendring District Council.

Standard Informative 3: If the development includes the construction of a new building on or at the boundary of 2 properties, work to an existing party wall or party structure or involve excavation near to and below the foundation level of neighbouring buildings, you are advised that the provisions of the Party Wall Act 1996 may apply to this development. An explanatory booklet concerning the implications of this Act is available online or from the District Council.

The attached notes explain the rights of appeal.

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 76 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If you want to appeal, then you must do so within the set time limit as outlined below.
- a. If it is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder's development, you would appeal to the Secretary of State. A Householder Appeal Form is required, available online at <http://www.gov.uk/government/forms>.
- b. If it is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder's development, you would appeal to the Secretary of State. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online at <http://www.gov.uk/government/forms>.
- c. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on a development which is not a householder's development, you would appeal to the Secretary of State. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online at <http://www.gov.uk/government/forms>.
- Appeals must be made using the relevant form (available below) which you can get from the Secretary of State at Foreign Office House, 1 The Square, London, City, Bristol, BS1 9RN (Tel: 0203 444 3100) or online at <http://www.gov.uk/government/forms>. Please note, only the applicant possesses the right to appeal.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not be regarded as having failed to give proper consideration to the provisions of any development order, or to any directions given under a development order.
- In practice, the Secretary of State does not refer to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority, based on the decision given by the Secretary of State,

ENFORCEMENT

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision, you must give notice of appeal to the Secretary of State within 14 days of the date of the notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision, you must give notice of appeal to the Secretary of State within 14 days of the date of the notice. In the case of a householder's development, you must give notice of appeal to the Secretary of State within 14 days of the date of the notice. In the case of a householder's development, you must give notice of appeal to the Secretary of State within 14 days of the date of the notice.

NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

WHEN PLANNING PERMISSION IS REFUSED OR GRANTED SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If you want to appeal, then you must do so within the set time frame as outlined below:
 - a. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. A Householder Appeal Form is required, available online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
 - b. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
 - c. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on a development which is not caught by a. and b. above then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
- Appeals must be made using the relevant form (as detailed above) which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>. Please note, only the applicant possesses the right of appeal.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions imposed having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based its decision on a direction given by the Secretary of State.

ENFORCEMENT

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.
- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (12 weeks in the case of a householder or minor commercial appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
