BACKGROUND

Solely for information, the Committee will look at information by school as to whether (at the start of the autumn term) it is fully open to teach the full range of year groups or whether restrictions are in place that mean this is not the case.

The information received may contribute to the debate on the other items at this meeting/the next meeting of the Committee.

DETAILED INFORMATION

An email enquiry was made to ascertain the answer to the Committee's question on Monday 14th September following the re-commencement of the school term.

Philippa Holliday, Assistant Director of Education – North East, Education Directorate - North East Essex, Essex County Council provided the following confirmatory reply:

“Other than the normal transition of year groups including nurse and reception age pupils, all schools in Tendring were fully open from Wed 9th Sept.”

RECOMMENDATION

That the Committee notes the Report provided and determines whether it has any comments or recommendations to put forward to the relevant Portfolio Holder or Cabinet.
