TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

APPLICATION NO: 24/00451/FULHH DATE REGISTERED: 9th April 2024

Proposed Development and Location of Land:

Householder Planning Application - single storey outbuilding to front of property.
88 Hungerdown Lane Lawford Manningtree Essex

THE TENDRING DISTRICT COUNCIL AS LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY HEREBY REFUSE PLANNING PERMISSION in accordance with the application form, supporting documents and plans submitted for the following reason(s)

- 1 The plots within this section of Hungerdown Lane are large in size with buildings set back on their plots with spacious frontages. The application dwelling benefits from a large front garden which is enclosed with hedging contributing to the spacious and rural character of the area.

The height of the proposed outbuilding will be over 4m with it positioned within the front garden allowing for noticeable and prominent views to be achieved from within the streetscene. The building will comprise of 3no bays making it a sizeable structure which due to its forward positioning is considered to dominate the site and existing dwelling.

The proposed outbuilding, by virtue of its siting forward of the dwelling and size will result in an incongruous form of development within the street scene, detrimental to visual amenity and the overall rural character of the area.

The proposal is therefore contrary to paragraph 135 of the NPPF and Policy SP7 of Section 1 of the adopted Tendring District Local Plan 2013-2033, and Policies PPL2 and SPL3 of Section 2 of the adopted Tendring District Local Plan 2013-2033.

DATED: 23rd May 2024

SIGNED:

John Pateman-Gee
Head of Planning and Building Control

NOTES FOR GUIDANCE

WHEN PLANNING PERMISSION IS REFUSED OR GRANTED SUBJECT TO CONDITIONS

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
- If you want to appeal, then you must do so within the set time frame as outlined below:
 - a. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. A Householder Appeal Form is required, available online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
 - b. If this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a minor commercial application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
 - c. If you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on a development which is not caught by a. and b. above then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice. A Planning Appeal Form is required, available online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
- Appeals must be made using the relevant form (as detailed above) which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 5000) or online at <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>. Please note, only the applicant possesses the right of appeal.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions imposed having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
- If you intend to submit an appeal that you would like examined by inquiry then you must notify the Local Planning Authority and Planning Inspectorate (inquiryappeals@planninginspectorate.gov.uk) at least 10 days before submitting the appeal. Further details are on GOV.UK.

ENFORCEMENT

- If this is a decision on a planning application relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as is already the subject of an enforcement notice, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice.

- If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within 28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (12 weeks in the case of a householder or minor commercial appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier.
