

Officer Report

28 October 2024

Both trees are situated to the front and side of the host property and feature prominently in the public realm. The proposal to reduce the trees is reasonable and necessary in order to contain them at a size and scale proportionate to the location.

The works will not adversely affect the health or condition of the trees nor diminish the contribution that they make to the character and appearance of the conservation area .

Decision - No objection