

Officer Report

30 October 2024

Small tree situated in the rear garden of the host property and does not feature in the public realm.

The proposal to reduce the size of the tree by trimming low branches is acceptable and reasonable and will not adversely affect either the health or condition of the tree.

Decision - No objection