

Officer Report

27 January 2025

The trees are large specimens and make a significant positive contribution to the amenity of the locality .

The proposed works are reasonable and will not adversely affect the health or condition of the tree nor will the works diminish the contribution that the trees made to the character and appearance of the area .

Decision - Approval