

Officer Report

17 February 2025

The proposal to reduce the crown of the Robinia and to remove dead wood is reasonable and necessary as the tree has been previously reduced in the past and is encumbered by power cables running through the canopy of the tree .

Decision - No objection