

Officer Report

17 February 2025

The proposal to reduce the size of the two conifers growing close to one another is reasonable and necessary and will not adversely affect their health or condition .

Additionally the works are required to retain the trees at a size and scale proportionate to their location .

Decision - No objection