

Officer Report

27 February 2025

The trees are small specimens situated in the rear garden of the host property making little ,if any, contribution to the character appearance of the conservation area .

The proposal to reduce them in size is reasonable and necessary and will contain them at a size and scale proportionate to their location .

Decision - No objection