

Officer Report

27 February 2025

The trees to which this application relates are situated in the rear garden of the host property and do not feature prominently in the public realm .

The proposal to prune them is reasonable and necessarily and will have no adverse impact on their health, condition or amenity value.

Decision - No objection