

Officer Report

20 March 2025

The proposal to re-pollard the large Sycamore is reasonable and necessary in order to contain the tree at a size and scale proportionate to its .

Similarly, the reduction in size of the line of Lime trees has been carried out several times in the past and consequently the current proposal is reasonable and acceptable .

Decision - No objection