

Officer Report

17 March 2025

The tree is a reasonable specimen making a moderate contribution to the character appearance of the conservation area .

Nevertheless, its species and condition are such that it does not merit formal legal protection by means of a tree preservation order .

Consequently, there is no objection to the removal of the tree .

Decision - No objection