

Officer Report

31 March 2025

Following the reduction of the tree approved by an earlier consent, the tree surgeon carrying out the work notified the council that the decay had spread back into the main limbs and the dieback was more extensive than initially thought .

The proposal to reduce the size of the tree by the amount proposed is necessary in order to retain the tree in a safe condition .

Decision - Approval