

Officer Report

6 May 2025

The works set out in the application are reasonable and necessary in order to contain the trees at a size and scale proportionate to their location .

The propose works will not adversely affect the health or condition of the trees nor diminish the contribution that they made to the character and appearance of the conservation area.

Decision - No objection