Noise and Nuisance Action Plan

1. All members of staff will be aware of procedures to reduce noise and nuisance.
2. All outside music speakers will be played on the west side, having the clubhouse behind to reduce the sound from the closest residence. (nearest 120metres)
3. A close boarded fence will be placed on the end of the east of side of clubhouse. Also on the west side across the rear of all residential premises. Which are some 120metres away.
4. All amplified music will have a limiter that will bring the output down to the appropriate levels agreed with local authority. Also a music noise indicator will be fitted. All speakers will be placed on rubbing matting to reduce transmission.
5. All music bass will be reduced to reduce noise.
6. All ducting within the clubhouse will be turned off to reduce sound transmission.
7. A member of staff will do routine perimeter surveillance to access noise levels and reduce if required.
8. A member of staff will assist the patrons leaving the premises at night to reduce noise levels.
9. The exit road is fully tarmaced to reduce car tyre noise.
10. Calming and controlled music will be played 30 minutes before closing time to reduce the number of patrons leaving at the same time.
11. Notices will be placed on all exits asking patrons to leave quietly and respect all surrounding neighbours.
12. Local agreement with all taxi companies will be arranged for them to enter the premises to collect their customers. This is to save on outside noise levels. Also car horns will not be allowed.

15. The clubhouse does not have any windows that can be opened on the east side of the building. All the windows are double glazed and the exit door is on the west side. Some 120 metres away from properties.

Subject: holland fc premises licence

dear Steve after a close look at the objections I would like my application hours to be changed to our previous licence hours which I believe are Sunday to Thursday 11am till 11pm and Friday and Saturday 11am till midnight that we held for 12 years with no complaints .we are a community club and wish to respect residents views on having a later licence ,
Yours Sincerely Mark Sorrell
